Effect of Matrix Rhythm Therapy: Resetting and reorganizing by Entrainment of the whole living system:

- It is the synchronization of cells, organs, organisms by external rhythms (time pattern).
- With physiological rhythms/vibrations (frequency window of 8 -12 Hz) we readapt physiological processes.
- External rhythms (“crank handle”) engage internal rhythms, to arrange them and their corresponding metabolic processes as well.
- Mobilization from Micro to Macro, from passive to active in the smooth transition.

Treatment of Dr. Masaru Emoto's Legs

...”As a matter of fact, I have been suffering the interruption in the circulation in my legs due to diabetes for more than 30 years. Only after 500 meters of walk, my left leg starts to ache, and I could not walk any longer.

Yet, in the year 2008, I had the chance to receive Dr. Randoll's treatment three times at his clinic, and my situation has improved dramatically since then...”
